

How to Do Business with the City of Inglewood

If you are a small business owner and would like to possibly benefit from the economic development in the City of Inglewood, be sure to attend a special presentation on How to Do Business with the City of Inglewood.

- When: Wednesday, March 30, 2016
- Time: 6:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.
- Location: Inglewood City Hall Community Room A (first floor)

You will leave with information and resources on:

- How to position your small business for success
- The City of Inglewood's procurement and RFP (requests for proposal) process
- How to access capital in preparation for contracting opportunities
- How to utilize social media for success

This two-hour presentation will be facilitated by the El Camino College Small Business Development Center (South Bay SBDC) and Christopher Jackson Sr., Economic Development Director for the City of Inglewood. Hosted courtesy of the City of Inglewood, Mayor, Council and Councilman Padilla.

Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration.

The South Bay Small Business Development Center (also known as the El Camino College SBDC) provides assistance to business owners and those looking to start a new business.

Our services include:

No cost confidential business advising with small business experts.

No cost/low cost workshops, seminars and special events to help increase your knowledge in all aspects of owning and running a small business.

No cost assistance with finding the appropriate lender and preparing your loan application, business plan if required, and any other necessary documentation.

For more information, call 310.973.3177 or visit www.southbaysbdc.org.

El Camino College
Business Training
Center/SBDC
13430 Hawthorne Blvd.
Hawthorne, CA 90250